SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING PROGRAM
 Archdiocese of Los Angeles

We at St. Bartholomew Catholic Church are committed to your child’s safety and well-being. Almost daily, we hear of incidents of child sexual abuse happening. That is why learning how to prevent child sexual abuse is important, not only for us as adults, but also for our children and young people.

The topic for the 2020 – 2021 catechetical year will focus on the importance of “Touch & Safety Rules, Safe Friends, Safe Adults, and Safe Touches.” Children and youth need to learn to help keep themselves safe. Classes are taught at age appropriate level with younger children learning to be aware of some simple safety rules such as never giving out their name or address and to tell a safe adult if they are uncomfortable or unsure about anything they see or hear. Older children and youth need a concrete understanding of the challenges and dangers that can be around them. They also need the tools to help them to be safe and the resources to turn to if they need help.

The Teaching Touching Safety program is provided for free by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, and is part of our ongoing effort to help create and maintain a safe environment for children and youth and to protect all children from sexual abuse. For more information contact: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

If you have any questions about the program, or would like to review any of the materials please feel free to contact Kellie De Leo in the Faith Formation Office.
