

“ . . .whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.”

—Matthew 25:40

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. It calls on us to reach out and build relationships of love and justice through service to one another, to our families, and to society.

“Charity and love are the same— with charity you give love, so don't just give money but reach out your hand instead.”

—St. Teresa of Calcutta

Parish Mission Statement

St. Bartholomew is a diverse Catholic community welcoming to all. Called to serve, we are united by faith, bonded by prayer, and committed to living the Gospel message.

The Community Group

“Give your hands to serve and your heart to love.... Never worry about numbers. Help one person at a time, and always start with the person nearest you.”

—St. Teresa of Calcutta

“For I was hungry and you gave me food . . . thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me . . . ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.’
‘ . . . Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink . . . see you a stranger and welcome you . . . see you in prison and visit you?’
“Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these . . . you did for me.”
—Matthew 25: 35-40

Fellowship and Community Service

The Community Group is a project-oriented pastoral ministry. Our mission is to provide parishioners with opportunities to share fellowship, spiritual growth, and Catholic social values through service to the communities of St. Bartholomew and Long Beach.

*“Unless someone like you cares
a whole awful lot,
nothing is going to get better.
It's not.”*

—Dr. Seuss

“Preach the Gospel at all times, and when necessary, use words.”

—St. Francis of Assisi

As Christians, we are called to affirm our faith in both word and deed. Through service to others we bring the spirit of “Thy will be done” to life.

Projects include:

- Preparing and serving dinner to the hungry in downtown Long Beach at Christian Outreach in Action (COA)
- Volunteering at the COA Christmas party which serves 1,500+ needy children
- Sponsoring the annual parish Giving Tree which provides presents to the needy children of Long Beach
- Hosting parish dinners

Projects are funded through:

- Sponsoring coffee and donuts on the 3rd Sunday of each month
- Selling an annual Christmas ornament designed specifically for St. Bartholomew's
- Individual donations
