Finding God in All Things

31st SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
November 4, 2018

MADE GREATER BY LOVE

(Joseph A. Tetlow, SJ)

[The concept of humility] often brings to mind images of someone despised and rejected, as Jesus was in the end. It may be that God the Father would choose that for the one who asks to live as the Son lived. It certainly happens: those who proclaim the Good News are incarcerated for long years, for instance. But it is crucial to note that if someone provokes others to despise and reject him except when he is doing what must be done for Christ's sake, he cannot be thought humble. A fool, perhaps; not humble. Always the prayer must be that the Father allow you to imitate in your own time the way of Jesus of Nazareth, so long as you do not sin, and no one else sins, either.

The lover in this case is made greater by love. The Beloved chose to empty himself, taking on the ways and characteristics of a servant. He did not mind being told that he was seriously mistaken about God and the people. He did not mind being considered mad. And his way led to great suffering and death. The person who wishes to be meek and humble as Jesus was can say to the Father honestly, "Treat me as you treated your own Son."

FR. EARL DREAMS

Our Prayer Bowl has become a holy vessel in which is placed many of our parish's deepest longings, desires, and needs for both the living and the dead. It sits before our main altar all year long as an angel of good intentions beseeching God on our behalf. Once a year parishioners surrender the year's accumulated prayer slips to be burnt and buried in our prayer garden outside our church walls. This year we offer those slips on Saturday, November 10th, at the 9:30 am Mass. Please make an effort to join us next Saturday. Those of us who have not yet submitted his or her prayer intention into our bowl are encouraged to do so. This form of prayer, along with other prayer forms, makes a more positive difference than anyone of us can ever imagine.

OUR 'PIUS' SMILE

A lawyer defending a man accused of burglary tried a creative defence:

"My client merely inserted his arm into the window and removed a few trifling articles. His arm is not himself, and I fail to see how you can punish the whole individual for an offense committed by his limb."

"Well put", the judge replied.

"Using your logic, I sentence the defendant's arm to one year's imprisonment. He can accompany it or not, as he chooses."

The defendant smiled. With his lawyer's assistance he detached his artificial limb, laid it on the bench, and walked out.

DE MELLO

A Friend in Need

If you're playing a game and someone gets hurt, you stop playing and try to help that person, don't you? Well, sometimes people get hurt on the inside. Those inside hurts show up in your friend's tears or sad face. When friends are hurt, on the outside or on the inside, you can show your love by helping them. If a friend is sad, give her a hug. If a friend is being picked on, stay by his side. Whatever you do to help your friends, you'll be sharing their problems - just like this verse says!
When someone needs help, I can show them I care
By hugging or listening or just being there.

SAINTS SPEAK

St. Irenaeus, 140-202,
Father of the early Christian Church

The ideal of the great contemplatives...is to become "modes of the infinite". Filled with an abounding sense of the Divine Life... they wish to communicate the revelation, the more abundant life, which they have received.
Evelyn Underhill, 1875-1941,
Mysticism, Anglo Christian spiritual writer
