

PENTECOST IS HERE!

Pentecost is the third great day that Christians celebrate. What do you know about Christmas? Easter? Pentecost?

In each space below, write or draw something about the great feast named. For example, you could draw a picture of Jesus' birth in the Christmas space. Friends or family members can help, too!

the Holy Spirit.”

(Acts 2:4, Good News Translation)

- What good news have you heard this week?
- On the Day of Pentecost, Jesus' friends began to tell other people good news about God. You can find out how in Acts 2:1-4.
 - With what were the disciples filled?
 - What did the disciples do?
- God gave the Holy Spirit to the disciples so they could tell everyone good news about God and Jesus.
- What good news could you tell about God and Jesus? With a friend, write an e-mail message on the computer screen below.
