Our response: Lord, hear our prayer.

For Pope Francis, bishop of Rome, and all bishops and pastors, that they will bear constant and joyful witness to the Sunday of God, we pray to the Lord.

For Christian communities in every lane, that they will minister the healing mercy of God to all who seek it, we pray to the Lord.

For leaders of nations, that they will promote world peace by renouncing the testing and storing of nuclear weapons, we pray to the Lord.

For the world community, that remembrance of the abolition of the slave trade will herald an end to human trafficking, we pray to the Lord.

For families and friends unable to come together for celebrations of joy or sorrow, that bonds of love will keep them united, we pray to the Lord.

For the sick, especially, Stella and Mohan Lal, Susan Walley, and for all who are awaiting medical procedures, we pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially, Florence Connors, for all who have suffered a loss unknown to others, and for all whose anniversary of death occurs in the coming week, we pray to the Lord.

For our parish faith community, that with God's blessing, we will also be vibrant, welcoming, engaging and supportive to all who need us, as we extend the work of spiritual renewal in our parish, St. Pius X pray for us, St. John the Baptist, pray for us, we pray to the Lord.
