Our response: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church, the people of God, that in the midst of all our challenges and difficulties, we may keep our eyes fixed on Jesus your Son, and so come to the safety of your Kingdom, we pray to the Lord.

For those in positions of power: that when they are in danger of sinking into the murky waters of dishonesty and corruption, Christ may inspire and uphold them, we pray to the Lord.

For those who have no faith, and who consequently are at the mercy of the cold winds of anguish and despair, we pray to the Lord.

For the people of Beirut, for international support and prayers, in their emergency, we pray to the Lord.

In thanksgiving for individuals and groups who extend a helping hand to the hungry, the homeless, and all who live on the margins of society, we pray to the Lord.

For the sick, especially, Stella and Mohan Lal, Susan Walley, and for all who need help, mentally, physically, spiritually and emotionally, we pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially, for all who have suffered a loss unknown to others, for all who have died alone and unloved, and for all whose anniversary of death occurs in the coming week, we pray to the Lord.

For our parish faith community, that with God's blessing, we will also be vibrant, welcoming, engaging and supportive to all who need us, as we extend the work of spiritual renewal in our parish, St. Pius X pray for us, St. John the Baptist, pray for us, we pray to the Lord.
