Our response: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church, the people of God, and for all peoples who claim God as their father; for our Jewish and Islamic sisters and brothers, that we may be at peace with one another and rejoice to do our Father's will, we pray to the Lord.

For migrants and refugees around the world, and especially migrants and refugees here in our province, for the work of the Association for New Canadians, and for our Nigerian community as they celebrate Nigeria Week and the 60th Independence Anniversary, we pray to the Lord.

For our country, that in all the challenges we face, we will remember the needs of our frail elderly, as we celebrate International Day of the Older Person, this coming Thursday, October 1, we pray to the Lord.

For the work of the Jesuits, in our province and around the world, as we celebrate the Feast of the Canadian Martyrs, on Saturday, September 26, we pray to the Lord.

For the unemployed, the underemployed, and the homeless, and all face an uncertain economic future in the coming weeks, we pray to the Lord.

For drug-peddlers, prostitutes and con artists, and all who live in the underworld of our nation, that they might realize that God continues to love them, we pray to the Lord.

For the sick, especially, Sheila Burke, Dennis Koziar, Rob Campbell, and for all who have received bad news regarding their health, we pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially, for all who grieve for them, for all who have suffered a loss unknown to others, and for all whose anniversary of death occurs in the coming week, we pray to the Lord.

For our parish faith community, that with God's blessing, we will also be vibrant, welcoming, engaging and supportive to all who need us, as we extend the work of spiritual renewal in our parish, St. Pius X pray for us, St. John the Baptist, pray for us, we pray to the Lord.
