

BISHOP LOUIS
REICHER
In partnership with UNIVERSITY OF DALLAS

April 9, 2021

Dear Bishop Louis Reicher Family,

It is with joy that I would like to take a moment and offer some exciting news.

From navigating us through the beginning stages of our school's merger to fostering innovative partnerships with organizations like the University of Dallas, God has done much to ensure that we've grown in what is excellent and true. I take pride in watching our dedicated teachers make the daring transition to a new curriculum and joy in seeing the students come alive as wonder and awe in God's creation is awakened.

Nevertheless, I came to the realization in prayer that we still had areas to grow in. More specifically, while our curriculum is founded on what is good, true, and beautiful, it was my discernment we could very much benefit from an expanded capacity in the realm of music. It is my firm belief that our students and families needed the beauty of music if their formational experience at Bishop Louis Reicher was to be complete.

Provisionally God answered this need with a blessing and a donor who shared this vision of beauty through music, especially within the educational environment. I am proud to announce that starting in the academic year of 2021-2022 Bishop Louis Reicher will be instituting a new choral program in support of the classical curriculum model at the middle school and high school level. Additionally, this choral program will extend to the parish as well. It is the intention of the donor and myself that this program not only forms the souls of our students, enriches the lives of our families and the quality of our worship, but be something we can be singularly proud of.

Starting immediately, we will begin searching for a Director of Music ministry at St. Louis and Bishop Louis Reicher. I ask that you pray for that search and, if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to Blake Evans, Rob Whitworth, or myself.

With Joy as Your Pastor,

Rev. Ryan Higdon
