ST. JOHN'S, CLONMEL

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

IN HIS LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS...

...Paul has this to say: "Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough..." This passage shares a great message of discipleship on this Easter Sunday!! In the context of Paul's culture, leavened bread was a bad thing, and therefore the yeast he refers to symbolizes great evil. His point is that it only takes a little bit of evil to completely ruin an entire "batch", which could refer to a single person or an entire community. We are being encouraged to remember that we are made new in the sacrifice of Jesus, and that we should rid ourselves of all evil...becoming a fresh batch of dough. Now that Lent has ended, reflect on what good habits you have developed and should keep, and what bad habits you have now broken, and should not go running back to. "Let us celebrate the feast, not with old yeast...but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

OLD ST. JOHN'S PEW

We were recently contacted by someone that has a church pew that came out of the church years ago. She bought it over 25 years ago at an auction. She is now moving out of state and would like to sell it to someone within the parish. Please send an e-mail to Madelyn in the church office if you are interested.

APRIL 12: SAINT JOSEPH MOSCATI

Joseph had eight brothers and sisters and his parents were very rich. While he was just a boy, one of his brothers died. Losing his brother, was very hard for Joseph and he spent a long time praying and thinking about why people need to suffer. He finally decided that he would go to school to become a doctor. Once he finished school he moved to Naples where he worked as a doctor for the rest of his life. Joseph was a very kind and gentle doctor. He listened carefully to his patients and helped them however he could. Many of his patients were poor and could not afford medicine, so he would buy it for them. He was always praying for his patients and he would even visit and care for the poor who could not get to the hospital for help. He was also very wise and knew how to use a patient's faith and the sacraments to help heal them. Joseph died on April 12th, 1927 when he was 47 years old. He was made a Saint by Pope John Paul II in 1987 and is the only modern doctor to be proclaimed a saint. After St. Joseph Moscati's death, many people who have asked for his prayers have been miraculously healed.
