ST. JOHN'S, CLONMEL

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

AFTER THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS...

the disciples and newly converted Christians formed small communities and lived as Jesus taught. As Missionary Disciples in the world today, we can look to them as examples. We, too, are called to live the "communal life," sharing with one another, breaking bread together, and meeting together in worship. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, as many people are confined to their homes, let's consider ways we can still live a "communal life." What are some tangible ways we can do this right now? Can you share non-perishable food items with someone in need? Can you use technology to pray with someone? Remember, you have been Empowered by the Holy Spirit, in all situations, to act as a disciple. Be creative and be intentional as you do so!

OLD ST. JOHN'S PEW

We were recently contacted by someone that has a church pew that came out of the church years ago. She bought it over 25 years ago at an auction. She is now moving out of state and would like to sell it to someone within the parish. Please send an e-mail to Madelyn in the church office if you are interested.

APRIL 19: SAINT JAMES DUCKETT

James Duckett was not Catholic growing up and made a living publishing and selling books in London. After reading a book about Catholicism, his life changed and he really wanted to join the Catholic Church. During this time, Queen Elizabeth I was queen of England and made laws to punish people who believed in the Catholic Church's teachings. James Duckett stopped going to his old church and was put in jail because of that decision. While he was in prison, he was very determined to become Catholic. He met an old priest named "Mr. Weekes" who taught him more about the Catholic faith and soon he was baptized into the Catholic Church. He had such a love for the Catholic faith that he printed many Catholic books and gave them to people everywhere. He married a Catholic woman and their son became a Carthusian monk. During his trial, a book binder named Peter Bullock told the court that he had bound many Catholic books for James and so James was sentenced to be killed. Peter Bullock was hoping that the Queen would be kind to him because he told her about James, but he was also sentenced to be killed for binding Catholic books. Both men were killed on the same day at the same place. Before they died, James forgave Peter Bullock for telling on him. He died a martyr because of his faith in Jesus and is the patron saint of booksellers and publishers.
