ST. JOHN'S, CLONMEL

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

JESUS SAYS...

"A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly." Hopefully you have not encountered an actual thief in your house! But consider for a moment some of the figurative "thieves" that may be dwelling in your heart and home ... anxiety, fear, anger, resentment. These "thieves" are robbing you of the abundant joy God means for you to have – they slowly and subtly destroy your discipleship. In today's gospel, Jesus hopes that the Pharisees will realize He is accusing them of falling victim to such thieves. Let's take a moment to look at ourselves in comparison to the Pharisees. Do we also need to hear this message with humility? Jesus has empowered you with the Holy Spirit...you were made to live life abundantly. Learn to ignore the voices of the "thieves" and instead follow the call of the Good Shepherd!

MAY 3: STS. PHILLIP & JAMES

Phillip and James were two of Jesus' Apostles. Phillip was a follower of John the Baptist, who was telling people to prepare their hearts for the coming of the Jesus. When Jesus told Phillip to "Follow Me", he was ready to go right away, because he had already prepared his heart for Jesus' coming. He was so happy to be following Jesus that he invited his friend Nathaniel to come and follow him too. After Jesus died and rose from the dead and ascended into heaven, Phillip travelled to Greece and Asia Minor to spread the Good News. He died a martyr because of his faith in Jesus; the Emperor of Rome during that time, did not let anybody believe in Jesus. James, was Jesus' cousin. After Jesus ascended into heaven James was made the Bishop of Jerusalem. St. James forgave the people that hurt him and even when the enemies of Jesus came to crucify him, James prayed that God would forgive them. He was also killed because of his faith in Jesus and died a martyr.
