ST. JOHN'S, CLONMEL

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

TODAY...

Peter has given us clear guidance in our discipleship. He warns that people who do not know Jesus will ask for a reason for your hope. At times, their questions may even feel like attacks, and cause you to become defensive. Peter says to answer them "with gentleness and reverence." Look to Jesus as your model. Jesus did not simply understand his faith... it was His identity. He shared His faith in the way He went about His work and in how He treated others. Before you can defend your faith, you must understand it, you must embrace it, and you must let it define you. As one writer says, "Our faith must be a first-hand discovery and not a second-hand story." Know it. Live it. Share it.

HOLY FATHER'S MAY PRAYER INTENTION

We pray that deacons, faithful in their service to the Word and the poor, may be an invigorating symbol for the entire Church.

FLOCKNOTE UPDATES

We have been sending out parish updates for the past month through a program called Flocknote. If you have not been receiving them, check your spam and then go to <https://stjohntheevangelistcath5.flocknote.com/> to sign up.

MAY 17: ST. PASCHAL BAYLON

Paschal grew up in a peasant family and he was a shepherd from the time he was 7 years old. His parents couldn't afford to send him to school, but Paschal taught himself to read and write. He loved to read holy books about God and pray and he loved to whisper his prayers to God as he took care of his sheep. When he turned 24 years old he became a Franciscan brother. He was loved by all the other brothers in the monastery because he was so kind and generous. Everyone noticed that he always did the hardest jobs and always did penance for his sins (did hard things to make up for the sins he committed and for the sins of others) and yet he was a very happy person. Paschal's two greatest loves were Jesus in the Eucharist and Mary our Mother. He prayed the rosary every day and wrote beautiful prayers to her and he loved to serve at Mass. With some scraps of paper Brother Paschal made a notebook that he used to write down thoughts about God and prayers that he had made up. After he died, a very smart Archbishop was given the notebook to read and he believed right away that Paschal was in heaven with God.
