SEPTEMBER 19: ST. JANUARIUS

St Januarius was born in Naples, Italy. He was Bishop of Benevento during the time when Emperor Diocletian was treated Christians very badly (about 305). Bishop Januarius was a loving and compassionate man who served his people well. Several deacons from Naples had been arrested and put in jail. When the Bishop found out, he set out to visit the faithful. He was arrested when he got to the prison and placed together with the deacons. All of them were sentenced to death. They were thrown to wild beasts but the animals did not attack them. Then all of the prisoners were beheaded one after the other. Bishop Januarius and his friends were martyred for their faith in Jesus. St Januarius is the patron saint of Naples.

SELFLESS SURRENDER

"If anyone wishes to be first, he must be the last of all and the servant of all." What does this mean in terms of our discipleship? It means that our call to discipleship must not become a source of pridefulness. Jesus set the bar high in terms of selfless surrender — it doesn't just mean that you give yourself over to the beautiful parts of God's will. That path will likely include some undesirable moments as well...for Jesus, that meant persecution, rejection, and crucifixion. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the disciples that He will be put to death, and the next thing He knows, they are arguing over who is the greatest among them. Isn't that just like humans?! Authentic discipleship is not described by greatness, privilege, or self-glorification. Instead, it is characterized by humility, meekness, lowliness, and servanthood. John the Baptist tells us that if God is to grow in us, we must diminish (Jn 3:30). This is echoed in Jesus' message today. Allow your discipleship to be great — to glorify God and build up His Kingdom, but do so quietly and by serving those who are most often overlooked.

TALK ON THE SHROUD OF TURIN IS THURSDAY

The Holy Shroud of Turin shows the mysterious image of a man who was scourged, crucified, crowned with a cap of thorns, and suffered a lance-wound in the side after death. You are invited to see for yourself, the historical and scientific evidence which is compelling for its authenticity. Unless you plan to visit Turin, Italy someday, this may be the closest you ever get to the 'real thing' because a rare actual size replica of the Shroud will be on display as well.

Shroud expert, Jim Bertrand, M.Ed. will give this unique presentation on Thursday, Sept 23 at 7pm here at St. John's. At the conclusion of the talk there will be time for questions to be answered. The event will finish around 8:30pm. If you'd like a sneak peek, here is a 3 minute video trailer which will show you more: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DE-0wYX3wNE>

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE HOME VISITORS NEEDED

Parishioners – if you haven't already, you'll soon be receiving your phone call to be a home visitor during the last part of October to assist in the Investing in our Faith, Family, and Future capital campaign. Consider being a part of this effort to grow our parish.

As you know, St. John's has embarked on a Capital Campaign to support our building project. An important aspect of this campaign involves volunteers contacting members through a personal visit. Each visitor will be asked to simply deliver sealed envelopes, with campaign information to approximately 5 households of the parish on Sunday, October 24. The following Sunday, October 31, visitors will return to the same households and pick up their commitment card in a sealed envelope.

This task should only take about one hour of your time each Sunday. Visitors will be fully trained on how to make these contacts and the best part is you will not have to ask people for money! The success of this campaign depends on our ability to visit all of our fellow parishioners.

If you have not been called and would like to help, please call a committee member or the office - your participation is appreciated and welcomed!

Please continue to pray for the success of the capital campaign for our parish and its future. Together we will enhance St. John's, where we gather as a community to share and grow our faith.
