If you are going to have surgery, please feel free to come by the rectory and receive the sacrament anointing of the sick.

Please follow the guidelines while in church. Protecting each other from the Coronavirus remains of the utmost importance. Wear a mask at all times. Spray your hands with a hand sanitizer as you enter the church. Sit only three to a bench. Families can sit together. Make sure you are given a sticker to place on the pew you sit on.

Anyone who still has their “My Lenten Offering” boxes, please return them as soon as possible.

THE RICHNESS OF THE SPIRIT

Students, and most adults recalling their school days, are familiar with the phrase “compare and contrast” that shows up from time to time on tests. Today we hear two different accounts of the giving of the Holy Spirit to the church. Let’s contrast, then compare. Luke’s account from Acts is filled with arresting details: the mighty wind from heaven, the tongues of flame, the miracle of different languages. John’s account seems timid: fearful disciples, the wounded Christ, the expelling of breath from his risen body, not from the sky. Our literal, modern minds wonder which way it happened; our noisy culture probably makes us prefer the former. But if we compare the two, we find that the dazzling richness of the Spirit fills both accounts, for it is the very breath of the risen Christ, ascended to the sky in Luke, that appears to his disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23).
