

We will be using Flocknote for our new Mass registration system. Please read the instructions below.

Each week we will send out via email the link to the weekend Mass registrations.

The links for the current month can also be found on our website. Stmadeleine.org

Click on the link for Mass registration. The #1 Screen will appear. The number of seats available is displayed on the left and the total number of seats is on the right. Type in your name and email address in the next pop up screen (#2), Select your desired Mass and indicate the number of people attending including yourself. Be sure to click Submit (#3).
