Reflections with Fr. Mark

May 5, 2020

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Cinco de Mayo on Taco Tuesday! I don't know about you, but I am going to celebrate with some good ole Mexican food. I had a couple of medical procedures yesterday morning, which required me to fast and prepare over the weekend, so I am ready to feast! In a real sense, each of us has been on a prolonged "fast" as if we had continued our Lenten journey and it hasn't come to a completion. We do the Lenten fast in order to strip ourselves of those things that bind us to this place and limit our ability to fully see the Lord in all His goodness. We are preparing our spirits to celebrate the beauty of His sacrifice and ultimately be filled with the joy of Easter Resurrection.

So, when our isolation fast is completed, what are you looking forward to "feasting" upon? I'm not speaking of food here, although, I am looking forward to visiting a few eateries at that. Rather, I am speaking of what are you missing most in your life right now?

I will let you contemplate that now. When the doors of society re-open and you come out of your tomb, be thankful and approach life with a renewed attitude of gratitude.

Happy Easter! He is Risen! Alleluia!

Fr. Mark
