Reflections with Fr. Mark

May 7, 2020

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus says in today's Gospel, "whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." Mother Theresa would often refer to seeing Jesus in the distressing disguise of the poor. Is this an invitation to a masquerade party? Perhaps we are being encouraged to see Jesus in "every person" no matter their status.

Often, I think it is easy to see Jesus in the disguise of the poor. It is much more difficult to see Jesus in the everyday encounters at home, at work, on the roadways, and in the marketplace. How do we respond to the Christ in those with whom we disagree or criticize? Something else to ponder in our daily journey these days!

Happy Easter! He is Risen! Alleluia!
