

Eighth Grade Retreat at Camp Christopher

Written by Samantha Zukowski

Published on 09/20/2019

On Friday 13, 2019 you might have seen the eighth grade wearing black shirts with the words “Got Prayer?” on the front. Those shirts are from the Camp Christopher Retreat that the eighth grade participated in on Tuesday, September 10, 2019. The Camp Christopher Retreat is held by Trinity High School and run by Mr. Swoboda, the vice principal at Trinity High School. Other Trinity teachers and many Trinity students were there as well. During the retreat, we prayed, hiked, talked to God, forgave friends, confess our sins, wrote a letter to ourselves, cried, and ended the day with Mass. It was an amazing experience that made me feel holier and closer to God.

Jazlyn Stanton, an eighth grader at Saint Charles, says that she was not really sure what to expect when she got on the bus that Tuesday morning. But as soon as she stepped off and saw the happy Trinity students waiting to meet us, she knew that it was going to be a good day. The entire day was just so amazing, peaceful and happy, and every moment was so much fun. Her favorite part was when we heard the Trinity kids witness stories, and when we sat on forgiveness hill, and tossed our rocks into the pond. Jazlyn’s advice to the seventh graders is, “It’s absolutely necessary to put your jokes, laughs, and remarks aside for a little while, and open up a bit. Participation is key.”