

“Fourth Grade Celebrates Ohio Day”, published on March 2, 2020

Did you see Orville Wright, Annie Oakley or Cy Young walking the hallways of Saint Charles last Friday? It wasn't your imagination! Mrs. White's fourth grade class was celebrating Ohio Day and famous Ohioans all day. Ohio day was officially on Sunday, March 1, marking the 217th anniversary of Ohio's statehood, but the fourth grade celebrated early! Each student in Mrs. White's class dressed up as a famous Ohioan. The class recorded the “Ohio Song” (which was played on the announcements Friday morning), gave speeches, and toured the school. Two lucky students dressed as gymnast Simone Biles and pitcher Cy Young got to read the morning announcements, too. Thanks, fourth grade, for making Ohio history come alive!

