Meet Mr. Gerace, our gym teacher! Mr. Gerace grew up in Lorain, Ohio. One of the dreams Mr. Gerace had as a kid was to play pro football. He went to St. Anthony's in Lorain until fifth grade and transferred to Larkmoor Elementary. Growing up, he was a popular kid in school. Some of the sports Mr. Gerace participated in were football, basketball, football, and track. After elementary school, Mr. Gerace attended Lorain Southview High School.

After high school, Mr. Gerace attended Heidelberg University for a year, then he went to Lorain Community College. He finished up at Hiram College. Mr. Gerace's first job was being a coach for a little league baseball team.

In his free time, Mr. Gerace enjoys working out, playing Playstation, going to the movies, and going on bike rides with his wife. Mr. Gerace's top three favorite movies are Pitch Perfect, Remember the Titans, and the Jurassic Park series. His top three shows are Friday Night Lights, Friends, and Paranormal Caught on Camera. He even has a favorite color: Red!

Mr. Gerace has had a cat for six years and his name is King Leopald, King Leo for short. Some of his favorite sports teams are the Browns, the Indians, the Cavs, and he likes to stay updated with the Columbus Blue Jackets, but doesn't watch them all the time.

When Mr. Gerace retires, he would like to live in Northeast Ohio. Some of his dream places to travel to are Ireland and Italy. His mom is Irish and his dad is Italian. Although Mr. Gerace didn't make it to the NFL, he is a great gym teacher. Next year we will miss him and all of the fun games he put on for us!
