

Elementary School Principal--Nashville

Diocese of Nashville

St. John Vianney Catholic School, located in Gallatin, TN, seeks an innovative leader to serve as school principal for the 2020-2021 school year. St. John Vianney (SJV) is a hidden gem in Sumner County, an area experiencing rapid growth just 35 minutes northeast of Nashville. SJV currently serves 75 children in PK-8th grades in well-appointed facilities, boasts test scores well above national averages, and enjoys the support of its parents and pastor. SJV is a partner school to Pope John Paul II Catholic High School.

The school principal has direct oversight of all aspects of the school's operation with the support of the parish pastor and superintendent of schools for the Diocese of Nashville. The school is fully accredited through Cognia district-wide accreditation and the State of Tennessee. Applicants must demonstrate knowledge of institutional advancement, communicate effectively, and employ collaborative practices to engage all stakeholders in the mission of the school.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES

- Are practicing Catholics in good standing with the Catholic Church
- Hold a Masters Degree in Education Leadership & Supervision or related field
- Have successful experience in a Catholic school environment

Interested applicants are invited to email the following to the Superintendent of Schools, Rebecca Hammel, at rebecca.hammel@dioceseofnashville.com:

- A letter of interest, including a statement of philosophy for Catholic education today
- A current resume or CV
- Three references who may be contacted at the time of application, at least one of whom has served in a supervisory role.

No phone calls, please.

NOTES:

Additional Salary Information: Benefits and retirement savings options are offered as part of the compensation package.