

Happy Thanksgiving!

More Than A Day, by Karl Fuchs

As Thanksgiving Day rolls around, it brings up some facts, quite profound. We may think that we're poor, feel like bums, insecure, but in truth, our riches astound.

We have friends and family we love; we have guidance from heaven above. We have so much more than they sell in a store, we're wealthy, when push comes to shove.

So add up your blessings, I say; make Thanksgiving last more than a day. Enjoy what you've got; realize it's a lot, and you'll make all your cares go away.

A Thanksgiving Observance

Count your blessings instead of your crosses;
Count your gains instead of your losses.
Count your joys instead of your woes;
Count your friends instead of your foes.
Count your smiles instead of your tears;
Count your courage instead of your fears.
Count your full years instead of your lean;
Count your kind deeds instead of your mean.
Count your health instead of your wealth;
Count on God instead of yourself.

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Psalm 118:24

In all things, give thanks!
