Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish is a welcoming, diverse, urban community of believers, united by our strong Catholic Faith. Through family centered and spirit-filled worship, education, outreach and generous service to the poor and homeless of our community, we are called to proclaim and live out the Gospel in our contemporary world.

July 19, 2020

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

Once again Jesus speaks to us in a parable. Remember a parable is an earthy story with a heavenly meaning. In today's Gospel, the parable is once again about weeds and wheat. The farmer sowed his wheat in the fields. At night time an enemy came and sowed the weeds. The immediate reaction is to pull up all the weeds. Surprisingly, the owner said: No, if you pull up the weeds, you will also uproot the wheat along with them. Rather let them grow together until harvest. At harvest time we can separate them, weeds will be tied up in bundles for burning and the wheat will all go into the barn.

This parable really applies to all of us. As we grow we must admit we are surrounded by both good and evil. I think one of the greatest fears of a parent is that their child will be influenced by the evil around them. As the Gospel states, we grow together but God will separate the good from the evil. This is because the Lord is so full of mercy. He always gives people a chance to grow and change.

So, today, let us pray for God's Mercy to touch any evil influence that surrounds us. Let us pray that in God's time they will turn to the Lord and experience His love and mercy.

There are so many times when I have personally seen people who seemed steeped in bad and who eventually have a conversion. Let's pray for conversion today for all of us.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Tony

OUR FAMILY PRAYER

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
