SEPTEMBER 20th 2020

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER FOR THE 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Hear, O Lord, the sound of my call; have pity on me, and answer me. Of you my heart speaks, you my glance seeks; your presence, O Lord, I seek. Hide not your face from me; do not in anger repel your servant. You are my helper: cast me not off; forsake me not off; forsake me not, O God my savior.

I believe that I shall see the bounty of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord with courage; be stouthearted, and wait for the Lord.

ST. MATTHEW

Little is known about St. Matthew, except that he was the son of Alpheus, and he was likely born in Galilee. He worked as a tax collector, which was a hated profession during the time of Christ. According to the Gospel, Matthew was working at a collection booth in Capernaum when Christ came to him and asked, "Follow me". With this simple call, Matthew became a disciple of Christ. From Matthew we know of the of the many doings of Christ and the message Christ spread of salvation for all people who come to God through Him. The Gospel account of Matthew tells the same story as that found in the other three Gospels, so scholars are certain of its authenticity. His book is the first of the four Gospels in the New Testament. Many years following the death of Christ, around 41 and 50 AD, Matthew wrote his gospel account. He wrote the book in Aramatic in the hope that his account would convince his fellow people that Jesus was the messiah and that His kingdom had been fulfilled in a spiritual way. It was an important message at a tie when almost everyone was expecting the return of a militant messiah brandishing a sword. It is thought he departed for other lands to escape persecution sometime after 42 AD. According to various legends he fled to Parthia and Persia, or Ethiopia. Nothing is recorded of Matthew's passing.. We do not know how he died, if us his death was natural or martyred. Matthew was a tax collector and is therefore the patron saint of bankers. The Church established St. Matthew's feast day as September 21st.

And all at ounce,
summer collapsed into fall.

Autumn is a second spring when every leaf is flower.
Anyone who thinks fallen leaves are dead has never watched them dancing on a windy day.
