Today is the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WATCH YOUR POSTURE. Our posture is often a tip-off to our hospitality and reverence for the Lord. Note the actions of Abraham as he greeted the Lord in the presence of three men who appeared near his tent. He ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them. He bowed to the ground as he met them. He and Sarah, his wife, hastened to prepare a meal and bring food and water to their guests. In the Gospel story, Jesus' friend Mary sat at his feet in order to listen to him speak. How do we welcome and reverence the Lord? What do our actions show? Do we remember the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament? How do we welcome the Lord in the scripture readings? How do we acknowledge his presence in our brothers and sisters, both at Mass and afterwards?

PLEASE HELP WITH OUR PRAYER LISTS!

We need to do some serious editing of our present Please Keep in Your Prayers Bulletin Page. These names (134) have been submitted by parishioners over the years and this page stays on the Altar of Sacrifice during our Masses. Many of these names need to be removed for various reasons but usually only the parishioner that requested the prayers knows the status. Call the Parish Office or leave a note in the Collection Basket if the name is to remain on the list. (PLEASE DO NOT TELL STAFF WHEN THEY ARE AT MASS! We will more than likely forget or lose the note:(At the beginning of August, if we have not heard from anyone about a particular name, they will be deleted. Many thanks for your help with this important ministry! The names will be printed in BOLD when we receive the information. God Bless!

The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflecting on God's Word

Our readings pair up the story of Jesus coming to dine at Martha and Mary's house with God coming to dine with Abraham and Sarah. And just as Abraham turned to Sarah for help in preparing the meal, Martha turns to her sister for a hand. After all, why should one person bear the burden of serving the Lord?

But Mary does not come into the kitchen, even after hearing her sister banging things around in there, perhaps a little more loudly than usual. Instead, she stays sitting at the foot of the Lord, listening to him. Martha, not one to keep her thoughts to herself, addresses directly the cause of her sister's prolonged delay: "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?" (Luke 10:40).

As a matter of fact, Jesus didn't care. What he did care about was that Martha was all "anxious and worried about many things"(10:41). Jesus did not care about busy Martha but about worried and anxious Martha. Even more simply, what he cared about was Martha. Not the meal, not the table, not the time they ate, or whatever else was bothering her. He just cared about Martha ~ and Mary, too, of course. But he didn't have to worry as much about Mary.

Perhaps we could consider this simply a story about Jesus visiting two very dear friends and wanting some time with them both, together. And if that was true then, why wouldn't it be true now? If you find yourself worried and anxious these days, give yourself some time with the Lord. ~ James A. Wallace, c.ss.r.

Living God's Word

We can pray that we find that balance between serving the Lord in our brothers and sisters and spending time in the presence of the Lord, both as members of the community of believers and as individuals whom Jesus loves very much.
