Code of Ethics

“The welfare of the game depends upon how the coaches, students, and parents live up to the spirit and letter of ethical conduct.”

It is the duty of ALL concerned with St. Clement of Rome Athletics:

- To emphasize the proper ideals of sportsmanship, ethical conduct, and fair play
- To eliminate all possibilities which tend to destroy the best values of the game
- To stress the values derived from playing the game fairly
- To show sincere courtesy to visiting teams and officials
- To establish a cordial relationship between visitors and hosts
- To respect the integrity and judgment of the sports officials
- To achieve a thorough understanding and acceptance of the rules of the game and the standards of eligibility
- To encourage leadership, use of initiative, and good judgment by the players on the team
- To stress the values derived from being a supportive and contributing member of a team
- To recognize that the purpose of athletics is to promote the physical, mental, moral, social, and emotional well-being for all players
- To remember that an athletic contest is only a game, not a matter of life or death for a player, coach, official, fan, community, state, or union.

I have read the above information and agree to follow the above mentioned rules and policies.
