HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is in the Lord. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream: It fears not the heat when it comes, its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit.... ‘And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said...’”

We are so familiar with the Sermon on the Mount, and the beatitudes of St. Matthew. They summarize the entire message of Jesus and provide the pattern for a healthy examination of conscience.

Today we meet St. Luke’s teaching, the Sermon on the Plain, addressed to the disciples and to us. Instead of eight positive directives, we are given four, and then four warnings to help us move from the now to the promised reward. How helpful for us to fix our eyes on what the Lord has in store for us, to make us less complacent, eager to ‘rejoice and leap for joy on that day!’

We know well the obstacles, barriers and challenges of the Christian life. St. Ignatius asks us to discern both the positive and negative to help us make good decisions.

President’s Day

Monday, February 18 is a federal holiday. The rectory will be closed.

50th Anniversary of the Annual Appeal – A Time for Reflection

This is the 50th Anniversary of the Appeal and the new theme is “Our Faith. Our Hope. Our Mission.” Contributions to the Annual Appeal are 100% designated to ministries and mission of the Church. The Appeal offers each of us the opportunity to respond to the needs of others by enabling ministries and services that touch and affect thousands of lives.

This year, you can support the Annual Appeal many different ways. Many of you may have received a mailing in January that you can respond to. You can also support the Appeal online at adw.org or text “Give” to (301) 231-1816. We will also be providing the opportunity to support the Appeal at Mass over the next couple of weekends.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

Pope Francis’ Prayer Intentions for February

For a generous welcome to the victims of human trafficking, enforced prostitution, and violence.

Have you already slipped on those NYE resolutions? Skipped a few days at the gym, slept in instead of that morning run, picked up fast food instead of packing a lunch... Don't worry, eGiving with Faith Direct is an easy resolution to keep! By enrolling in online giving, you will simplify your monthly budgeting and provide St. Patrick’s in the City with consistent, reliable support.

You can sign up online at www.faithdirect.net using our church code: DC90, or by mailing a paper enrollment form available in back of the church.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!
God Bless, Msgr. Sal

For more information, contact Brian Dorsey at 240-888-4736.

February Poor Box: Catholic Student Center at the University of Maryland

The Catholic Student Center at University of Maryland is a faith community where students and faculty can encounter Jesus Christ through Word and Sacrament. Catholic Terps seek to follow Saint John Paul II's call for a "New Evangelization" through building relationships and offering social, service and spiritual opportunities that encourage and challenge individuals to know and spread the Gospel.

Thank you for your support
