Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am so happy and excited to begin my time as Pastor of Saint Patrick Parish on February 1, 2020. First and foremost, I thank our Archbishop, Most Reverend Wilton Gregory, for appointing me to this historic parish. And, I want to thank Monsignor Sal Criscuolo for his wonderful leadership of this parish over the past 15 years and for his friendship to me. I look forward to working with you to continue all of the good things that are part of this parish community and to exploring new ideas to be part of the new evangelization in the heart of Washington, D.C. Please keep me in your prayers as I promise my prayers for you.
