HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Jesus said to his disciples: The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again and out of joy goes and sells all he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price he goes and sells all he has and buys it.”

At this time of the year it is not rare late in the day to find a person on the beach, moving from left to right, with a metal detector, listening for a sound to reveal a coin, or other valuable, beneath the sand. I often wonder if something of value surfaces.

Jesus tells us what the treasure is, what the pearl of great price is, but how do I react? Does it move me, to put other things aside, to move below the surface and discover how blessed I am? We might hear the detector signal us, but we must bend, sift and reach out to discover what is really important for our spiritual lives. The treasure and the pearl are the life of grace, the gift of God's very life, accepted by me, and shared with others.

What are the treasure and pearl for me today?

MUSIC AT MASS: As congregational singing is still suspended, the cantor will sing the Entrance and Communion antiphons. The settings are by Fr. Columba Kelly, OSB, who was not only one of the foremost experts on Gregorian chant in the United States, but also created a vast body of English chant. The cantor will also chant the Alleluia with its characteristic flourish on the final vowel: the jubilus!

The IGNATIAN VOLUNTEER CORPS (IVC) is a lay led organization in the Jesuit tradition that provides meaningful service opportunities and personal formation based on the spirituality of St Ignatius Loyola to those in their retirement years. As our communities reopen, many of our partner agencies have an increased need for the expertise and professional skills our Service Corps Members provide. We are currently making placements for the service year that begins in the Fall, some of which can be done remotely. For more information on how you can make a profound difference to our community and Church, contact Dan Kerns (dkerns@ivcusa.org).
