Dear Friends,

I write to you for the first time as your pastor during a surreal time with all the uncertainty we are experiencing these days; so many things weigh on our hearts. Yet, what remains absolutely certain is the Lord's presence with us. His love, His grace abounds, and our invitation in faith is to live out our baptismal call to build up the Heavenly City, right here in the Federal City. As your pastor, I look forward to serving the Lord with you, as we continue to make St. Patrick's a place of peace and welcome for all who desire to know the Lord Jesus. I look forward to meeting you in the days and weeks to come, and I encourage you to sign up for our parish Flocknote messages, as I hope to use that forum regularly to communicate with you. Please note that with Monday's Martin Luther King, Jr. federal holiday, the rectory office will be closed and we will have one Mass at 12:10pm. For Wednesday's federal holiday schedule in observance of the presidential inauguration, the rectory office will also be closed, and due to the security situation throughout Washington, there will be no public Mass that day.

Let us continue to pray for one another, and may we strive each day to live out our faith, allowing the Lord's love to transform our hearts and guide our lives. And in the words of St. Patrick:

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me.

God bless you!

In Christ,
Fr. Andrew

As our public health situation continues, we know that many people are not able to attend Mass in person. It is so hard to be without the sacraments, especially our Lord in the Eucharist. Would you or a loved one like to receive Communion safely at home? If so, please email Madeleine Shakotko at mpshakotko@gmail.com for more information.
