

Dear Brothers,

You may have questions and concerns in light of Mayor Cooper's recent "Rule of 8" directive for Davidson County. This civic directive is occasioned by the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday and is directed principally to address potential hazards of upcoming social gatherings. Our policy concerning church-related gatherings and activities, both liturgical and non-liturgical, remains unchanged. The Bishop asks that you continue to exercise thoughtful care concerning the various health and safety precautions which prudence demands at this time. Within the context of these precautions, you may continue to make prudential judgments in light of your own circumstances concerning how best to provide a safe and healthy environment while continuing to perform the essential mission of the Church to worship God, teach and proclaim the Faith, and serve the spiritual and corporal needs of those in our midst.

Thank you for all you are doing to serve and support the Christian faithful in this unusual time.

God bless,
Fr. John Hammond
Vicar General
