In this new year we must acknowledge that our Catholic religion is evolving in many new ways we could have not imagined in years past. Some good and some not so. I am confident that this is an evolution toward positive change in our new and ever changing environment of technology. The Knights of Columbus is part of this change. We have a positive impact on this evolution. Be part of this evolution with us. Join us so that you too can help us help others.

God Bless You All
