

Office of Victims Assistance Ministry Helps Abused Victims Find Healing

The Office Victims Assistance Ministry of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles was created in April 2002 to respond to allegations of past or current sexual abuse by anyone working or volunteering for the Archdiocese - clergy, religious or lay persons. The Office is charged with creating a safe and compassionate environment in which victim-survivors can come forward and receive counseling and other assistance in the healing process. The Office is also charged with ensuring that allegations of sexual abuse are reported to the appropriate civil authorities.

Mandated Reporters of Child Abuse

Clergy, school personnel, and many parish staff members have been designated as mandated reporters of child abuse under California law. When one of these persons receives information leading to a "reasonable suspicion" that a child is being abused or neglected, he or she must make a report to the appropriate child protection or law enforcement agency.

My dear brothers and sisters,

As you know, for nearly a year now we have been in the grips of a global health crisis. But despite the challenges of the coronavirus pandemic, the Church here in Los Angeles has continued its vigilance and commitment to child safety in our parishes, schools, and other ministries.

Using Zoom and other online platforms, we have trained more than 4,000 clergy, staff, and volunteers in our VIRTUS® Adult Awareness program since the pandemic began. Our Empowering God's Children and Young People© child sexual abuse prevention program has also continued successfully, using online platforms.

I am so grateful to our dedicated staff and volunteers for rising to the challenges of this extraordinary moment. All of us in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles are blessed by their witness and commitment to the cause of preventing abuse.

In this brochure, and on our website, protect.la-archdiocese.org, you will find important background and resources on our efforts to prevent abuse and to support victim-survivors.

Thank you for your commitment to ensure that children and young people are safeguarded in our parishes, schools, ministries and communities. Together we are making a difference.

I entrust all our children and families to the tender care and protection of Our Blessed Mother Mary.

+ José H. Gomez

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

“Let us find the courage needed to take all necessary measures and to protect in every way the lives of our children, so that such crimes may never be repeated.”
