FROM THE PASTORS DESK

This Sunday is Body and Blood of Christ Sunday. It reminds us that Christ comes to each of us individually. In every Mass He is made present for us, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. It is probably the most faith extracting tenant of our Catholic teaching. It is so challenging that when Jesus told his disciples that they must eat his flesh (John ch.6), most of them stopped following Him. Surveys reveal that the majority of Catholics do not believe it. Sad. Yes, it is challenging to our faith. But whether we believe it or not He is present. He is the one who said, "This is my body...". Do we believe Him?

The Lord be with you. Fr. Sid
