Weekly Writing Journals

Starting today and going until the end of the year we are going to have our Weekly Writing Journals. On an assigned day you will take home your journal binders. You will write a paragraph about one thing you did that week or tell me about your whole week. Then on your following assigned day I will collect them, look through them, and grade them sending them home the next day. The grade will count as a Grammar grade. Below I have listed what I will be looking for in the journals. Points will be deducted if any of these things are missing from your journals:

- Paragraph: 5 - 6 sentences
- Include the date of your journal or if you are writing about the whole week, the dates of that week.
- Complete thoughts to the sentences. You may write about different things you do during the week, but don't skip around without some kind of closure to your story.
- All sentences must be complete: capitals, spaces, periods, exclamation points, question marks, quotations (if needed), etc.

Spelling will not count! We are working on how to write complete and proper sentences and paragraphs.

I will give extra credit for going above and beyond 5-6 sentences or if you decide to draw a beautiful picture with your paragraph (remember you must use as many colors as your age). If you have any questions or concern please feel free to ask.

YOUR TURN IN DAY: _____

THIS MEANS THIS IS THE DAY YOU WILL TURN IN YOUR JOURNAL (EVERY WEEK) AND IT WILL BE GRADED AND SENT HOME THE NEXT DAY FOR THE FOLLOWING WEEK.
