MISSION STATEMENT

We, at The Church of the Resurrection, are a Catholic community of people from all walks of life who foster acceptance, love, and the hope of resurrection. Our call is to nourish our love of God through Jesus Christ under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Centered in the Eucharist, we are nurturing a faith community through education, prayer, worship and Christian fellowship. As stewards we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, and share them lovingly, thereby bringing Jesus into the daily lives of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

MESSAGE FROM FATHER JOE:

I am sure that all parents want their children to grow up with a sense of grace about them and have a deportment permeated with good manners in their dealings with others. It is common knowledge that children imbibe their social skills from their parents and hence the crucial role of parents in instilling good and correct manners in their children. Please find below some useful tips, given by experts, to inspire and instill good manners in your children.

1. When entering the house, greet your children or even hug them. This should help develop their sense of love and self-worth.
2. Be good to your neighbours and never backbite. Never speak ill of other drivers when on the road. Your children would listen, absorb and emulate.
3. When calling your parents encourage your children to speak to them. When visiting your parents take your children along with you. The more they see you take care of your parents, the more they will learn to take care of you.
4. When driving them to school, don't always play albums or CDs in the car. Rather tell them some motivational stories yourself. This will have a greater impact, trust me.
5. Read to them a short story and even Scripture a day... it doesn't take much time but very impactful in creating strong bonds and wonderful memories.
6. Comb your hair, clean your teeth, and wear presentable clothes even if sitting at home and not going out for the day. They need to learn that being clean and tidy has nothing to do with going out.
7. Try not to blame or comment on every word or action they say or do. Learn to overlook and let go sometimes. This certainly builds their self-confidence.
8. Ask your children's permission before entering their rooms. Don't just knock and enter, but then wait for a verbal permission. They will learn to do the same when wanting to enter your room.
9. Apologise to your children if you made a mistake. Apologising teaches them to be humble and polite.
10. Don't be sarcastic or make fun of their views or feelings, even if you "didn't mean it" and "was only joking." It really hurts.
11. Show respect to your children's privacy. It's important for their sense of value and self-esteem.
12. Don't expect that they listen or understand the first time. Don't take it personal. But be patient and consistent.
13. Pray with them. Show them how to pray. Lead by example.

Can we, parents and elders, make No. 13 into a daily routine? The Lord will bless you abundantly for it.

Father Joe SDB
