A CHRISTMAS REPRISÉ

The Church's celebration three weeks ago of the Baptism of the Lord signaled the "official" end of the Christmas season. Today's feast of the Presentation of the Lord seems to extend the Incarnation celebration a bit longer. In fact, some have called this feast a "second Epiphany."

The first reading recalls the anticipation of Advent, as Malachi writes, "Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me." The reading from Hebrews reminds us of the Incarnation, proclaiming that Jesus had a "share" in our own "blood and flesh." The Gospel finds the infant Jesus on his first visit to Jerusalem and his human parents once again surprised and in awe over the events surround his birth. In the simplicity of the manger, in the grandeur of the temple, in the domesticity of Nazareth, Jesus comes. May we come to know him and so be filled with "wisdom" and the "favor of God."

RETORNO A LA NAVIDAD

La celebraci3n de hace tres semanas del Bautismo del Se1or se1al3 el fin "oficial" del tiempo de Navidad para la Iglesia. La fiesta de hoy de la Presentaci3n del Se1or parece extender la celebraci3n un poco m1s all1. En realidad, algunos han nombrado esta fiesta una "Segunda Epifan1a". La primera lectura nos recuerda la anticipaci3n del Adviento, como escribe Malaqu1as: "Env1o a mi mensajero para que prepare el camino ante m1". La lectura de los Hebreos nos recuerda la Encarnaci3n, proclamando que Jes1s tuvo una "parte" de la misma "carne y sangre". El Evangelio encuentra al ni1o Jes1s en su primera visita a Jerusal3n, y a sus padres una vez m1s sorprendidos y asombrados por los acontecimientos de su nacimiento.

En la sencillez del pesebre, en la grandeza del templo, en la domesticidad de Nazaret, Jes1s viene. ¡Que lleguemos a conocerlo y por ello nos encontremos llenos de "sabidur1a" y de la "gracia de Dios!" - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
