

St. Anthony Parish

March 7, 2021
Third Sunday in Lent

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: My eyes are always on the Lord, / for he rescues my feet from the snare. / Turn to me and have mercy on me, / for I am alone and poor.

Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison,
Christe eleison, Christe eleison,
Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison.

First Reading—In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?” So Moses cried out to the Lord, “What shall I do with this people? A little more and they will stone me!” The Lord answered Moses, “Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink.” This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the Lord, saying, “Is the Lord in our midst or not?”

Responsorial Psalm:

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul;
the decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. R.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye. R.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever;
the ordinances of the Lord are true, all of them just. R.

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb. R.

Second Reading—Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Gospel—Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob’s well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, “How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?”—For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.—Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.” The woman said to him, “Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?”

Jesus answered and said to her, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.” I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem.” Jesus said to her, “Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth.” The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything.” Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one (who is) speaking with you.” Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, “We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world.”

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

SANCTUS—Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dóminus Deus Sábaoth. Pleni sunt caeli et terra glória tua. Hosánna in excélsis. Benedíctus qui venit in nómine Dómini.

Hosánna in excélsis.

AGNUS DEI

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem

COMMUNION ANTIPHON—For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord, / the water I shall give will become in him / a spring welling up to eternal life.

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

How to Make an Act of Perfect Contrition

1 —Call to mind your sins.

2 —Reflect on God's tremendous and unconditional love for you and how your sin offends that love. Express your sorrow.

3 —Make the intention to go to sacramental confession as soon as it is possible for you with the intention of mentioning any mortal sins forgiven through your perfect act of contrition.

4 —Pray an Act of Contrition:

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Exodus 17:3-7, 12-17/Psalm 19/1 Corinthians 1:22-25/John 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

The Holy Spirit through Exodus demonstrates our complaining nature and how we can test the Lord. The Psalmist is reminding us that the Law of the Lord is perfect, more precious than gold or honey from the comb. The Holy Spirit through 1 Corinthians is reminding us that Christ crucified is the power and wisdom of God. Jesus is teaching us he is the Christ and that he knows us intimately (longer version), and that we will worship him in Spirit and in truth. Father open the hearts of all your children to trust in your forgiveness alone so we live in your Love and Mercy and proclaim your Good News to all. I ask you this in Jesus. Amen. Most Holy Virgin Mary pray for us. St. Joseph pray for us.

INTENTION OF THE HOLY FATHER, MARCH Intentions for Evangelization—Sacrament of Reconciliation: Let us pray that we may experience the sacrament of reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY —We continue to make home visits (masked and at a distance), bringing hygiene supplies provided by our parishioners and food from the St Thomas More food bank. Thank you for allowing us to represent you – together we bring the blessing of God's love to the poor.

TRINITY FAMILY COOKBOOK

If you are like me, much of my COVID time has been spent in the kitchen! One of the perks of a pandemic is trying new recipes and sharing with friends and family! So, we have decided to collaborate with our families to create a "Trinity Family Cookbook." Please help us by participating in this fun and useful project. Each family should decide on a favorite recipe to share. The ingredients, recipe, and instructions will be given on one page, along with any additional tips for preparation. Additionally, a second page will include pictures, drawings, and decorations. You could also share family stories that center around the meal. Our goal is to have copies printed and ready for purchase before Mother's Day! For more information pick up a flier at the back of the Church.

St. Francis Of Assisi Women's Club Quilt Raffle

The raffle will be held on March 24th. Tickets are $1.00 each. First place winner gets to choose one quilt from 3 quilts (full size, baby crib, Christmas), second place chooses, and the third place winner receives the remaining quilt. For more information or tickets call Jean 509-939-4333 or Renee 509-995-3898. Please call by March 19. Money and ticket stubs must be returned by March 23, 2021

The Catholic Foundation of Eastern Washington—Did you know that you can make a financial gift to your parish that will last forever? You can! To learn more contact Sr. Mary Tracy, SNJM (509) 358-7334 or email: metracy@dioceseofspokane.org

Third Sunday of Lent!

We have reached the third week of Lent. Our 2nd collection from the First and Second Sunday of Lent totaled $733. Thank you to every one who has donated thus far. We are asked in the scriptures on Ash Wednesday to sacrifice during Lent. Part of our sacrifice is to "give alms." This past year has been hard on everyone in our community. There are so many people in need. Making a deliberate sacrifice of "alms" to support our Parish Lenten 2nd Collection is true act of sacrifice and generosity. This year's Lenten 2nd Collection is supporting our own St. Vincent de Paul Society. You can put your donation in the basket, drop it off at the office or donate at our website; click the give now button and select St. Vincent de Paul from the donation drop down. Complete the form and submit to make a secure donation to the Lenten 2nd Collection. Thank you for your generosity to our neighbors in need.
