

St. Anthony Parish

April 18, 2021
Third Sunday of Easter

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; / O sing to the glory of his name. / O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading— Peter said to the people: “The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate’s presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away.” The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, let your face shine on us.

When I call, answer me, O my just God,
you who relieve me when I am in distress;

have pity on me, and hear my prayer! R

Know that the Lord does wonders for his faithful one;
the Lord will hear me when I call upon him. R

O Lord, let the light of your countenance shine upon us!
You put gladness into my heart. R

As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep,
for you alone, O Lord,
bring security to my dwelling. R.

Second Reading— My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but

Gospel—

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

How to Make an Act of Perfect Contrition

1 — Call to mind your sins.

2 — Reflect on God's tremendous and unconditional love for you and how your sin offends that love. Express your sorrow.

3 — Make the intention to go to sacramental confession as soon as it is possible for you with the intention of mentioning any mortal sins forgiven through your perfect act of contrition.

4 — Pray an Act of Contrition:

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19/Psalm 4/1 John 2:1-5a/Luke 24:35-48
The Holy Spirit through Acts is encouraging us to repent, be converted, so our sins may be wiped away. The Psalmist is inviting us to pray that the Lord let the light of his face shine upon us. The Holy Spirit through 1 John is writing so we not sin by keeping the Lord's decrees. Jesus is teaching us that the resurrection of his body is true and he fulfills the scriptures and we are to bear witness to this truth. Father let your face shine on all your children so we radiated Easter Joy to others so they may come to know Jesus. I ask you this in Jesus. Most Holy Virgin Mary pray for us. St. Joseph pray for us.

COVID-19 VACCINES

Starting April 15th every person 16 and older is eligible for the Covid-19 vaccine in the state of Washington. For more information about the Diocese of Spokane's position on the vaccine please see this month's Inland Catholic at the back of the Church or go to dioceseofspokane.org. There are also copies of the Bishop Daly's letter from January 29th regarding the vaccine available at the back of the Church. In his letter he encourages all of us to seek our conscience and strive for charity among ourselves and our neighbors; "Yet we have also experienced how this pandemic has engendered resentment and division in our society and even within the Body of Christ. Sadly, we have seen differences in prudential decisions overshadow the unity rooted in charity and the sacraments. If we look at the present question of whether to accept a COVID-19 vaccine, we know that people will come to differing conclusions as they weigh both moral and prudential matters. For instance, a man may choose to accept vaccination to protect his health and livelihood, and his neighbor may discern that she should reject vaccination as part of a principled stand against violations of human dignity. They are morally free to make such choices. We ought not allow our differing responses to the demands of these times be occasions for division. Instead, I exhort us to be united in our common pursuit of virtue, respect for our neighbor, and humble reliance on God's grace. It is my prayer that as we continue to navigate this time of disease and distress, we, as God's people, may shine forth as a prophetic sign of unity and concord in a world in need of healing."

If you are interested in receiving the vaccine but are having trouble wading through the details of where, when, and how please contact the parish office, 509-327-1162, tmcneiece@dioceseofspokane.org and Tierney would be happy to help you get access.
