Advent is a season of challenge. It is a period of time that calls for conversion. It is a time of active waiting, that challenges us to move beyond the glitter of surface values in a consumer society to the root values of our faith. The essence of these values are reflected in and through the life of Jesus.

Like the call of John the Baptist, the Scripture readings of Advent call us to "prepare the way of the Lord". John realized that the time for a new world was at hand. John realized that the moment for accepting a new type of King had come. He understood that it was a time for reform and repentance because the world was about to be regenerated. John prepared the way for love by urging all to step out of themselves and into life-saving waters. He wanted all to be cleansed of prejudice, hatred, and selfishness so that they would be ready to meet the Lord of generosity and love.

We are called to open ourselves so that we might be ready to welcome Jesus into our hearts anew. And once we have opened our hearts, the challenge then is to live so that the words and practices of Jesus, as reflected in His ministry, are reflected in our lives.
