From the Pastor's Desk

After the crucifixion, Jesus' friends were huddled in Jerusalem, confused and troubled and trying to make sense of all that had happened. It was then that the risen Christ came and "stood among them". "Why are you so troubled?" He asked.

His presence comforted them. So much so, that St. Luke said "they disbelieved for joy." It was too good to be true. But it was true!

Then Christ promised that they would be "clothed with power from on high". The Holy Spirit would come upon them, and with God's power surging through them, they could handle whatever came.

Christ's presence in our midst also brings the power to handle life's worst terrors. There is no need to give in or give up. Ever!
