Meditation for the Week

“Each week we are welcomed by our fellow so-journers as we gather together to celebrate the Eucharist. Today we hear of a woman and her husband who offer hospitality to the prophet Elisha whenever he comes to their city, going so far as furnishing him with a place to stay. Let us furnish a place in our hearts for our Lord to stay so that we may gain strength and nourishment on our journey to the kingdom.” (Pastoral Patterns)

Kings 4:8–11, 14–16a Genuine hospitality is highly praised.

Psalms 89 "For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord."

Romans 6:3–4, 8–11 We must consider ourselves dead to sin.

Matthew 10:37–42 Whoever does not take up the cross is not worthy of Christ.

“Much is demanded of a disciple, but great are the rewards. Elisha’s benefactors furnish a room for the itinerant prophet, and he goes on to make them an extraordinary promise. Saint Paul tells the Romans that those baptized in Christ are baptized into his death, but will also live with him in eternal life. Jesus tells his apostles that each must take up his cross, but they will be rewarded with everlasting life in the kingdom. Are we willing to be disciples as well?” (Pastoral Patterns)

PRO-LIFE CORNER: There is no greater injustice in the world today than the shedding of the innocent blood of unborn children. We will never be able to build a culture of life if we do not respect the dignity of the human person at all stages of life. We must build our society as it once was, founded upon respect for life and the right to life and the pursuit of happiness.
