Meditation for the Week

"Thousands of people, many of them sick and all of them hungry, walked for miles from towns throughout Galilee just to see and hear Jesus. How fortunate we are that Jesus is with us here whenever we gather in his name. He nourishes us at this table, strengthening our weaknesses and fortifying us for our own journeys. Let us pray today that we may all eat and be satisfied at this Eucharist." (Pastoral Patterns)

Isaiah 55:1-3 Come to the Lord.

Psalm 145 "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs."

Romans 8:35, 37-39 Nothing can separate us from God's love.

Matthew 14:13-21 The people ate and were satisfied.

" 'The hand of the Lord feeds us,' we sing in today's responsorial psalm, and today's readings attest to this proclamation. In Isaiah, the LORD invites everyone to share in food and drink. In the Gospel, Jesus invites the crowds to stay and feeds thousands with five loaves and two fish. Neither hunger nor thirst, poverty nor want, famine nor distress can separate us from the love and generosity of the Lord. Let us listen to God's word knowing that we are invited to the feast as well." (Pastoral Patterns)

Our Harvest Collection
