Meditation for the Week

"At the end of the liturgical year the readings focus upon the end times and the last judgment. This year, those themes begin today. We are reminded that we cannot know either the day or the hour. Therefore, we should always be prepared. Gathered together to celebrate the Eucharist today, let us consider our readiness for the Lord's coming at the end of time." (Pastoral Patterns)

Wisdom 6:12-16 Rise before dawn and watch for wisdom's appearance and you will not be disappointed.

Psalms 63 "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God."

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 or 4:13-14 We do not mourn death as those who have no hope.

Matthew 25:1-13 The wise virgins were prepared for the coming of the bridegroom.

"In today's Gospel, five wise virgins bring extra oil for their lamps so that they will remain burning well into the night, while five foolish virgins, having neglected to bring more oil, carry lamps that flicker out. The wisdom that the five foolish ones disregard was available to all who desired it, resplendent and unfading. Let us use that wisdom now as we listen to the word of God, considering what we can do to brighten the path to God's kingdom." (Pastoral Patterns)
