Meditation for the Week

"Every time we gather for the Eucharist, we offer simple gifts of bread and wine that become Christ's Body and Blood for all to share. These basic staples of food and drink that we bring to the table become the flesh and blood of our Savior. His Body and Blood nourish us as we carry out his mission. Most of us realize now how much we miss receiving the Eucharist for an extended period of time. Therefore, let us approach the table of the Lord today in joy and gratitude for God's abiding presence in this sacred meal." (Pastoral Patterns)

Exodus 24:3-8 This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you.

Psalms 116 "I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord."

Hebrews 9:11-15 The blood of Christ will cleanse our consciences.

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26 This is my body. This is my blood of the covenant.

"Blood was used by Moses and the Chosen People to seal the covenant God has made with them. Centuries later, Jesus used his own blood—the blood he offered his disciples, the blood he would freely shed on the cross—to seal the new covenant he made with those in need of redemption, with all of us. In today's psalm we sing together, "I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord." As we deepen our appreciation of the blood we share, let us commit to taking the cup Jesus offers us and calling upon the name of the Lord." (Pastoral Patterns)
