PRAYER THIS WEEK: Lord God, you so loved the world that you sent your only son, Jesus, to bring eternal life to those who believe in him. I join him in his prayer for laborers in your harvest. May your Holy Spirit inspire and strengthen generous men and women to continue his mission in the world. May this same Spirit make known to me your will in my regard. Where you lead, I will follow. Let it be done to me according to your word. I make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen. Diocese of St. Augustine

THE ROSARY is recited 30 minutes before Mass. Please come and pray for the following: for special needs in our parish, for the sick and the deceased in our parish, for our government, for our service men and woman out in the field fighting for our country, for an end to abortion and pro-choice, for an end to drug abuse and violence, for vocations, for living and deceased priests, for our Holy Father and for our own intentions.

PRO-LIFE CORNER: America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance – it is not. It is suffering from tolerance; tolerance of right and wrong; truth and error; virtue and evil; Christ and chaos. Our country is not nearly so overrun with the bigoted as it is overrun with the broad-minded. Abortion and euthanasia should never be tolerated.

Meditation for the Week

"We have responded to the call of the Lord by gathering together in this holy place to worship God, to listen to the Word, and to share in the Eucharist. When we leave, we are asked to go forth as changed persons, nourished by the Lord so that we can witness to our faith outside these four walls. In today's Gospel, Jesus sent the disciples out to carry on his mission, empowering them with his authority. In baptism, we have been empowered by Christ to carry on his mission as well. May today's celebration inspire us to renew our commitment to the Christian mission." (Pastoral Patterns)

Amos 7:12–15 Go, prophesy to my people.

Psalms 85 "Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation."

Ephesians 1:3–14 or 1:3–10 God chose us in Christ, before the foundation of the world.

Mark 6:7–13 He began to send them out.

"From Amos to the twelve apostles, God calls people of faith to serve others. Amos, a shepherd and horticulturist, was called to prophesy to Israel instead. Saint Paul was called to bring Christ's message to Gentiles all around the world. The Twelve were sent by Jesus in pairs to heal the sick and drive out demons. As we listen to today's readings, let us consider how we are called by God to give witness to the gospel." (Pastoral Patterns)
