Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God." Apart from the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ, nothing speaks better of God's incarnate love than marriage. God designed it this way. We place great value on love and rightly so. What we fail to realize, however, is that love, its very presence and place in our lives, is not simply part of the human package deal. Love comes from God. It is one of God's greatest gifts to human beings. When we begin to realize that our very ability to love is sacred, it changes up how we see the essence of life, and purpose and sanctity of marriage. God is love. It stands to reason then that if we follow the path of unconditional, self-emptying love we will then stumble upon God. It is precisely this intimate wedding of God with love that gives such eloquence and honor to the love between husband and wife. As a living sign of Christ's love for the Church and for humanity, husbands and wives speak volumes of God's unconditional incarnate love for all of his children! The Divine power that brings unity and life to marriage is so strong that once joined, it really cannot be separated. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. God's perfect divinity always meets our broken and imperfect humanity. God is okay with this setup as he created it this way. Our loving is never as unconditional as God's and often tainted by our own imperfections, needs, memories, hurts, sinfulness, and weakness. All of this baggage negatively impacts even the most well-intentioned marriages, causing them to be hurtful and empty. We are love works in progress. God can succeed in perfecting our love only if we keep our eyes fixed on him as the source of that love. That's why marriage is always about three and not just two. The Divine intimacy at the heart of marriage is what can make them celebrations of great union and happiness. Couples who are still madly in love with each other after many years, still looking at each other with that timeless twinkle in their eyes, best tell the story of God's oneness with humanity. Honor, celebrate, and support those who have accepted a vocation to marriage. Living in a world that easily pulls relationships apart, may they find hope and inspiration from their faith companions who are on the same journey!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Therein lies the...rib

"If I were God..." is a dangerous way to start a sentence, but how many of us do this? Probably more regularly than we would like to admit. Even if we don't verbalize the sentiment, we likely think it from time to time. Most of us finish that statement with some genius, original idea for eradicating difficulty and pain from the world. If I were God, I wouldn't let anyone go hungry. If I were God, all wealth would be equally distributed. If I were God, war wouldn't exist. I imagine that, when we think thoughts like these, God shakes His head and wonders why we don't look a little harder at the whole of His creation — because I can promise you, it's never lacking. When Adam had a need for a companion, God used what was available: Adam's rib. Everything that He had put into place was already perfect, already complete. Woman was a new creation, but not a new species. Adam searched through all of creation to find the perfect mate, but God had tucked the answer inside of His creation all along. I'm guilty of it as much as anyone else — looking to Heaven with a chip on my shoulder. "Why haven't you sent me what I need? I've been asking over and over again." But have I even thought to look inside of myself? Where is the rib you are missing today? What are the opportunities God has set before you? What are the needs that He is ready to fulfill, if only you would stop wasting time lamenting all the solutions that don't fit the bill?

Reanudaremos nuestro horario regular a partir de entonces.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Ahí está la...costilla

“Si yo fuera Dios...” es una forma peligrosa de comenzar una oración, pero ¿cuántos de nosotros hacemos esto? Probablemente con más regularidad de lo que nos gustaría admitir. Incluso si no verbalizamos el sentimiento, es probable que lo pensemos de vez en cuando. La mayoría de nosotros terminamos esa afirmación con alguna idea genial y original para erradicar la dificultad y el dolor del mundo. Si yo fuera Dios, no dejaría que nadie pasara hambre. Si yo fuera Dios, toda la riqueza se distribuiría por igual. Si yo fuera Dios, la guerra no existiría. Me imagino que, cuando pensamos pensamientos como estos, Dios mueve la cabeza y se pregunta por qué no miramos un poco más a la totalidad de Su creación, porque puedo prometerle que nunca es insuficiente. Cuando Adán necesitaba una compañera, Dios usó lo que estaba disponible: la costilla de Adán. Todo lo que había puesto en su lugar ya era perfecto, ya estaba completo. La mujer era una nueva creación, pero no una nueva especie. Adán buscó en toda la creación para encontrar la pareja perfecta, pero Dios había escondido la respuesta dentro de Su creación todo el tiempo. Soy tan culpable como cualquier otra persona: mirando al cielo con una estilla en el hombro. “¿Por qué no me enviaste lo que necesito? Te lo he estado preguntando una y otra vez.” Pero ¿he pensado siquiera en mirar dentro de mí? ¿Dónde está la costilla que te falta hoy? ¿Cuáles son las oportunidades que Dios ha puesto delante de ti? ¿Cuáles son las necesidades que Él está dispuesto a satisfacer, si dejaras de perder el tiempo lamentándote de todas las soluciones que no se ajustan a tus necesidades?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Hoy el contenido de las lecturas enfatiza tres temas: matrimonio, divorcio y fidelidad. Toda la liturgia de la Palabra se desarrolla en torno a esta delicada situación: el matrimonio que no es desechable ni fácil de cambiar. Muy a pesar de que en ocasiones se piensa que es cosa del pasado. El tema que es muy delicado lo aborda el mismo Jesús en el Evangelio, y lo clarifica aún más a sus discípulos en privado, para que no exista duda. “Lo que Dios ha unido, que el hombre no lo separe” (Mateo 10:9). El énfasis debe estar en la fidelidad del uno para con el otro. Lo que Dios unió, que no lo separe el hombre. Ni los padres de familia que están en contra del matrimonio de su hija o hijo. Ni las desavenencias de los conyugues en la vida de todos los días. Ni la falta de amor y diálogo en el matrimonio y la familia en general. Ni los amigos del esposo ni las amigas de ella. Nadie lo puede hacer porque, sencillamente, es un Sacramento instituido por Dios. El papa Francisco nos dice lo siguiente al respecto: “En el proyecto originario del Creador, se trata de un hombre y una mujer llamados a reconocerse, a completarse, a ayudarse mutuamente en el matrimonio. Esta enseñanza de Jesús es muy clara y defiende la dignidad del matrimonio como una unión de amor que implica fidelidad. (Octubre 7- 2018). “Por eso dejará el hombre a su padre y a su madre para unirse con su esposa, y los dos serán una sola carne”. (Mateo 10:7). Que al participar en esta Eucaristía dominical nos ayude a crecer en fidelidad para ser ejemplo de vida a los que nos rodean, especialmente en casa.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"What God has joined together." We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God's power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

"Lo que Dios ha unido." Todos estamos familiarizados con estas palabras. Debido a que el hombre y la mujer son esencialmente de la misma sustancia, aunque también distintivamente diferentes, existe un deseo innato de estar conectados y unidos. Es cierto que los convenios matrimoniales pueden ser extremadamente difíciles de negociar y, a veces, muy dolorosos de experimentar. Pero también pueden ser celebraciones de gran unión y felicidad. Así lo demuestran las parejas que han estado casadas durante muchos años y que todavía tienen ese mismo brillo de devoción en sus ojos que estaba presente el día de su boda. Dios lo diseñó para que fuera así. Por el poder de Dios, los dos se vuelven uno. Esto no es un diseño humano. La verdadera intimidad del matrimonio es una intimidad divina. Es un vínculo creado por un poder mucho mayor que cualquiera que se encuentre en las dos personas que están unidas. El matrimonio es donde la virtud del amor se expresa más plenamente.
