Confesiones de Martes a Viernes a las 4:30 pm (Favor de llamar para apuntarse)

Sacrament of Baptism

The parish would like to help you prepare for the baptism of your child. We offer a pre-baptismal class once on the 3rd Sunday of each month from 2-7 pm. Please call the office for the time of the next class. The child's baptism will be scheduled after parents and sponsor have attended the class. Baptisms are generally celebrated on Saturday after 5:00 pm Mass or Sunday after the 11 Mass.

Sacrament of Marriage

In order to give couples adequate time to prepare for their wedding, we ask that couples call the parish office to schedule an appointment with the pastor six months prior to the anticipated wedding date.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

When a family member is ill, please call the parish office to invite the pastor to come and celebrate this sacrament with your family member.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, every 1st Friday of the Month and Third Thursday of the Month from 2:30 to 4:30 pm.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Oct. 17, 2021

“What do you wish me to do for you?” Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It’s an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer. Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today’s Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God’s attention. That’s not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper. What we need from God is a relationship. It’s a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God’s kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God’s Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words “thy will be done” will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God’s eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God’s definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SAFE ENVIRONMENT CLASS FOR PARENTS

Parents of children attending religious formation classes here at Christ the Savior are required to attend a Safe Environment Class on keeping children safe. Two classes will be held on Monday, Oct. 25 at 6 to 7 pm. in English and Spanish. Please meet in the Guadalupe Room. The other class will be in English only from 6 to 7 pm on Wednesday, Oct. 27 and held in the Angels’ Inn.

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

St Vincent de Paul will once again be offering Thanksgiving Baskets to our less fortunate neighbors. The distribution date will be November 21st at 1 p.m. The number to call to put your name on the list is (915) 503-1282, only those on the list can receive baskets. In order to provide the baskets, we are asking our generous parishioners to help us out by donating these items: Instant mashed potatoes, stuffing mix, gravy and biscuit/roll mix, canned pumpkin and yams/sweet potatoes, canned vegetables, canned cranberry sauce, and evaporated milk. All these items can be brought when you come to mass and dropped off in the blue bin in the foyer. Anyone who wants to donate turkeys, should call the office so that we can put those in the freezer and get an accurate count of how many turkeys we have on hand. St Vincent De Paul cannot exist without the generous support of our parishioners and even through the pandemic and church closures, we still received your donations and in turn have been able to help so many people with utilities and food. God Bless you and Thank You!

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. 2 Corinthians 9:11

RELIGIOUS FORMATION CLASSES

Religious Formation classes for grades K- 8th grade will resume on October 20th.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

What’s in it for me?

I think we’ve all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what’s in it for us. It doesn’t matter if it’s a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you’ll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: “If I do this, what will I get?” Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship. In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us. But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don’t give up just because they keep failing at it. We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives. Remember, they’re just like us. If they can do it, we can too.

ANUNCIOS

CLASE DE AMBIENTE SEGURO PARA PADRES

Los padres de niños que asisten a clases de formación religiosa en esta iglesia deben asistir a una Clase de Ambiente Seguro sobre cómo mantener seguros a los niños. Dos clases se llevarán a cabo el lunes 25 de octubre de 6 a 7 pm en inglés y español. Será en el Salón Guadalupe. La otra clase será en solo inglés de 6 a 7 pm el miércoles 27 de octubre y se llevará a cabo en el Angels Inn.

CANASTAS DEL DIA DE ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS

San Vicente de Paúl ofrecerá una vez más canastas de Acción de Gracias a nuestros vecinos menos afortunados. La fecha de distribución será el 21 de noviembre a las 13:00 horas. El número para llamar para poner su nombre en la lista es (915) 503-1282, solo aquellos en la lista pueden recibir canastas. Para proporcionar las canastas, estamos pidiendo a nuestros generosos feligreses que nos ayuden donando estos artículos: Puré de papas instantáneo, relleno, harina para bisquets, latas de: calabaza, camote, arándanos y vegetales. Todos estos artículos se pueden traer cuando venga a misa y dejarlos en el contenedor azul en el vestíbulo. Cualquiera que quiera donar pavos, debe llamar a la oficina para que podamos ponerlos en el congelador y obtener un recuento exacto de cuántos pavos tenemos disponibles. San Vicente de Paúl no puede existir sin el generoso apoyo de nuestros feligreses e incluso a través de la pandemia y el cierre de iglesias, todavía recibimos sus donaciones y, a su vez, hemos podido ayudar a muchas personas con los servicios públicos y la comida. ¡Dios te bendiga y gracias!

Serás enriquecido en todos los sentidos para que puedas ser generoso en cada ocasión, y a través de nosotros tu generosidad resultará en acción de gracias a Dios. 2 Corintios 9:11

CLASES DE FORMACIÓN RELIGIOSA

Las clases de formación religiosa para los grados K-8 se reanudarán este miércoles 20 de octubre.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

¿Qué hay para mí?

Creo que todos hemos sido culpables de mirar una situación y preguntarnos qué hay para nosotros. No importa si se trata de una asignación particular de trabajo, alguien en la parroquia que pide ayuda con la venta de pasteles para el viaje misionero o tu cónyuge preguntándote si te puedes hacer cargo de la compra de comestibles esta semana. A menudo, nuestra primera reacción a una de estas solicitudes es un suspiro profundo y el pensamiento: "Si hago esto, ¿qué obtendré?" A veces nos sorprende darnos cuenta de que los Apóstoles no fueron diferentes. Tendemos a idolatrar a estos contemporáneos de Cristo como gigantes que caminaron con el Salvador. Pero en realidad, estos individuos eran simplemente seres humanos que luchaban por comprometerse con la tarea de la corresponsabilidad diaria. En los Evangelios, tenemos vistazos de ellos anhelando elogios y afirmación. Los vemos compitiendo por posiciones de poder dentro del grupo de los doce. Los vemos esperar recompensas terrenales como el honor y la admiración. Los vemos actuando mucho como nosotros. Pero al final, los vemos transformados por la gracia de Dios. Como todos los santos, su santidad proviene de su compromiso con su llamado. Ellos tropiezan, y mientras tropiezan, siguen confiando en Dios. Siguen volviéndose hacia Él. Siguen pidiendo ayuda. No se rinden solo porque siguen fallando. Nos define lo que damos cuando no tenemos ninguna esperanza de ser reembolsados, recompensados o reconocidos. Los Apóstoles entendieron esto, eventualmente, y dieron correspondientemente. La mayoría de ellos dio su propia vida. Recuerda, ellos son como nosotros. Si ellos pueden hacerlo, nosotros también podemos.

XXIX Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario 17 de octubre de 2021

El itinerario de Jesús sigue y sigue preparando a sus discípulos para los eventos futuros. Sin embargo, ellos tienen aún una forma muy diferente de pensamiento de lo que Jesús quiere de ellos. Hasta el grado de que Santiago y Juan piden los primeros puestos cuando Jesús llegue a su reino. ¡Que muchachos tan listos! Antes que nadie se les adelante ellos preguntan. La respuesta de Jesús ante tal petición es la siguiente: "¿Pueden beber la copa que yo estoy bebiendo o ser bautizados como yo soy bautizado?" (Mateo 10:38). A razón de esta pregunta, Jesús les vuelve a repetir que él no camina hacia el triunfo sino a hacia la muerte. Pero, ellos seguían sin comprender tan importante mensaje. Señor, ten misericordia de nosotros y de nuestras pretensiones de poder, de dinero y de triunfo. Es lógico que todos queramos los primeros puestos, erróneamente en muchas ocasiones, y por eso luchamos en esta vida, sin importar a quien aplastamos o dejamos atrás. Por esa razón, Jesús explica por qué ha venido al mundo. "Sepan que el Hijo del Hombre no ha venido para ser servido, sino para servir y dar su vida como rescate por una muchedumbre" (Marcos 10:45). ¿Crees tú que ahora sí se comprende el mensaje? ¿Crees que con todo lo que se ha vivido durante la pandemia, aun se busquen los primeros puestos? Pidamos, al Señor, que se aparte de nuestro diario vivir la envidia, el egoísmo, el odio y el racismo. Que al participar en la Eucaristía nos demos cuenta que todos somos iguales y que todos ocuparemos un puesto importante en su Reino.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion.

ALTAR FOR THE DAY OF THE DEAD

An altar to celebrate the day of the dead (Nov. 2) will be set up at the back of the church. This is an ancient custom followed in many countries. If you would like to participate, please bring a photo of your deceased loved ones to the Parish Office before October 27. Please attach your personal information on the back of your photos.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

Are Catholics allowed to visit psychics? Why or why not?

Answer:

It's part of human nature to experience some sense of unease and fear about the future. This can lead some people to seek out the services of psychics or consult horoscopes or turn to other occult practices or resources (e.g., Ouija boards or tarot cards). The Catechism of the Catholic Church is very clear that Catholics should avoid such practices: "Consulting horoscopes, astrology, palm reading, interpretation of omens and lots, the phenomena of clairvoyance, and recourse to mediums all conceal a desire for power over time, history, and, in the last analysis, other human beings, as well as a wish to conciliate hidden powers. They contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (no. 2116).

Despite the uncertainties we might feel, we are called to have faith and trust in God, confident of God's desire for what is best for us. This means that we are called to surrender, to pray and to reflect on how we can best move into the future in hope, knowing that God is with us.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Son las posiciones de poder y gran autoridad las que la gente suele admirar. Equivalemos el éxito con ingresos de seis cifras, altos cargos, administración e influencia. Incluso hacemos todo lo posible para encontrar el favor de nuestros jefes para que podamos obtener un pequeño reconocimiento adicional y tal vez la próxima promoción cuando surja. Así es el mundo. Aquellos que tienen sus valores establecidos en las cosas terrenales van a trabajar según las reglas terrenales. Olvidamos que no funciona de esa manera en el Reino de Dios. El éxito no se mide desde el lugar del estatus, la influencia o el prestigio, sino desde el lugar de la humildad, el servicio y el sacrificio. La autoridad que uno espera alcanzar no es una autoridad sobre los demás, sino una autoridad que proviene de la sabiduría y del desarrollo de la relación con Dios. Jesús cambia las tornas de nuestras prioridades. Incluso los primeros discípulos tuvieron dificultad para entender esto. Realmente pensaban que de alguna manera recibirían un privilegio o bonificación por ser fieles. A menudo operamos bajo la misma ilusión.
