32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 7, 2021

On December 10, 1979, a very petite holy woman known as Mother Teresa of Calcutta spoke these words in her Nobel Peace Prize Acceptance Speech. “But I am sure in the families and many of our homes, maybe we are not hungry for a piece of bread, but maybe there is somebody there in the family who is unwanted, unloved, uncared, forgotten, there isn’t love. Love begins at home. And love to be true has to hurt. I never forget a little child who taught me a very beautiful lesson. They heard in Calcutta, the children, that Mother Teresa had no sugar for her children, and this little one, Hindu boy four years old, he went home and he told his parents: I will not eat sugar for three days, I will give my sugar to Mother Teresa. How much a little child can give. After three days they brought into our house, and there was this little one who could scarcely pronounce my name. He loved with great love, he loved until it hurt. And this is what I bring before you, to love one another until it hurts, but don’t forget that there are many children, many children, many men and women who haven’t got what you have. And remember to love them until it hurts.” Living authentically and walking with holiness always involves sacrifice. It has to hurt. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even what is apparently a generous gesture can be nothing. It is no wonder that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus and the young child in our story above the interest of Mother Teresa. It is easy to make the houses of our lives look like they are in perfect order when in fact they are in shambles within. Religion can sometimes make this hypocritical masquerade easy to accomplish. We can find ourselves in all the right holy places, reciting all of the correct prayers, participating in community collections, and reciting the proper doctrines only to find ourselves empty, shallow, self-focused, and overly anxious about personal concerns. The one who learns to discover their inner poverty, their spiritual poverty, is the only one who can truly place him or herself at the mercy of God. It is only when we allow ourselves to be empty that we realize Who we actually need to fill us. This is the real meaning of trust. Many of us are afraid to take the plunge. We allow ourselves to detach from only so much, always keeping a watchful eye on the protection of our securities. We understand the value of poverty, but we do not want to become too poor. As long as we are able to recognize this tension, our reluctance to let go and our struggle, we can continue our journey of humbly learning how to love so deeply that it hurts. God understands and waits.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

St Vincent de Paul will once again be offering Thanksgiving Baskets to our less fortunate neighbors. The distribution date will be November 21st at 1 p.m. The number to call to put your name on the list is (915) 503-1282, only those on the list can receive baskets. In order to provide the baskets, we are asking our generous parishioners to help us out by donating these items: Instant mashed potatoes, stuffing mix, gravy and biscuit/roll mix, canned pumpkin and yams/sweet potatoes, canned vegetables, canned cranberry sauce, and evaporated milk. All these items can be brought when you come to mass and dropped off in the blue bin in the foyer. Anyone who wants to donate turkeys, should call the office so that we can put those in the freezer and get an accurate count of how many turkeys we have on hand. St Vincent De Paul cannot exist without the generous support of our parishioners and even through the pandemic and church closures, we still received your donations and in turn have been able to help so many people with utilities and food. God Bless you and Thank You!

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. 2 Corinthians 9:11

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Look

Have you ever made the mistake of telling your spouse that you’re out of something — only to see them respond with The Look? Then you realize it: of course, he or she knows you’re out of butter. They knew it before a butter shortage was even a blip on your radar. We might go to the fridge and lament the complete lack of ketchup. Then someone moves a couple items and show us the ketchup that so savagely eluded us just moments before. Sometimes, we all have “the look” when dealing with God. We tell Him our stores are empty. “I’m out, God! I can’t do anymore! Can’t give any more. Can’t take any more. It’s all gone.” But we forget: God is the keeper of our stores. He is the one who fills them, and the one who watches as they empty. See, we don’t know how much we are capable of loving. We don’t know how much we are capable of serving. We don’t know how much we are capable of hoping. We see everything with spouse eyes. Only our Creator truly knows the limits of His creation. Do you ever make the mistake of telling God “I’m done”? Be careful the next time you do. Chances are, He’s far from finished working.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

In the story of the initial encounter between Elijah and the widow, we see the widow rewarded for her courage and faith. When has your faith resulted in a positive outcome?

Second Reading:

The reading from Hebrews focuses on Jesus’ sacrificial death on earth, his intercession for us from heaven, and his eventual return at the end of time. Who do you know needs to hear this succinct summary of our faith in Christ?

Gospel:

In the Gospel reading we hear Jesus criticize the scribes for their hypocrisy and praise the widow for her generosity. How do you ensure your actions and faith are authentic?

CANASTAS DEL DIA DE ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS

San Vicente de Paúl ofrecerá una vez más canastas de Acción de Gracias a nuestros vecinos menos afortunados. La fecha de distribución será el 21 de noviembre a las 13:00 horas. El número para llamar para poner su nombre en la lista es (915) 503-1282, solo aquellos en la lista pueden recibir canastas. Para proporcionar las canastas, estamos pidiendo a nuestros generosos feligreses que nos ayuden donando estos artículos: Puré de papas instantáneo, relleno, harina para bisquets, latas de: calabaza, camote, arándanos y vegetales. Todos estos artículos se pueden traer cuando venga a misa y dejarlos en el contenedor azul en el vestíbulo. Cualquiera que quiera donar pavos, debe llamar a la oficina para que podamos ponerlos en el congelador y obtener un recuento exacto de cuántos pavos tenemos disponibles. San Vicente de Paúl no puede existir sin el generoso apoyo de nuestros feligreses e incluso a través de la pandemia y el cierre de iglesias, todavía recibimos sus donaciones y, a su vez, hemos podido ayudar a muchas personas con los servicios públicos y la comida. ¡Dios te bendiga y gracias!

Serás enriquecido en todos los sentidos para que puedas ser generoso en cada ocasión, y a través de nosotros tu generosidad resultará en acción de gracias a Dios. 2 Corintios 9:11

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

La Mirada

¿Alguna vez has cometido el error de decirle a tu cónyuge que te has quedado sin algo, solo para verlos responder con "la mirada"? Entonces te das cuenta: por supuesto, él o ella sabe que te has quedado sin mantequilla. Lo sabían antes de que la escasez de mantequilla fuera incluso un parpadeo en su radar. Podríamos ir a la nevera y lamentarnos por la falta total de cátsup. Luego, alguien mueve un par de artículos y nos muestra el cátsup que nos eludió tan salvajemente momentos antes. A veces, todos tenemos "la mirada" cuando tratamos con Dios. Le decimos que nuestras reservas están vacías. "¡Estoy sin nada, Dios! ¡No puedo hacer más! No puedo dar más. No puedo soportar más. Todo se ha terminado." Pero nos olvidamos: Dios es el guardián de nuestras reservas. Él es el que las llena y el que mira mientras se vacían. Mira, no sabemos cuánto somos capaces de amar. No sabemos cuánto somos capaces de servir. No sabemos cuánto somos capaces de esperar. Vemos todo con ojos de cónyuge. Solo nuestro Creador conoce verdaderamente los límites de Su creación. ¿Alguna vez has cometido el error de decirle a Dios "estoy terminado o terminada"? Tenga cuidado la próxima vez que lo haga. Lo más probable es que Él esté lejos de terminar de trabajar

Preguntas de la Semana

Primera Lectura:

En la historia del encuentro inicial entre Elías y la viuda, vemos a la viuda recompensada por su fe y valentía. ¿Cuándo ha tenido tu fe un resultado positivo?

Segunda Lectura:

La lectura de hebreos se centra en la muerte sacrificial de Jesús en la tierra, su intercesión por nosotros desde el cielo y su eventual regreso al final de los tiempos. ¿A quién conoces que necesite escuchar este resumen preciso de nuestra fe en Cristo?

Evangelio:

En la lectura del Evangelio escuchamos a Jesús criticar a los escribas por su hipocresía y alabar a la viuda por su generosidad. ¿Cómo te aseguras de que tus acciones y tu fe sean auténticas?

En la liturgia de hoy, Jesús nos enseña lo que vale ante Dios. Sus ejemplos ayudan a clarificar lo que existe en el corazón de cada uno según su posición y estatus económico. Por un lado, Jesús condena algunas actitudes y alaba otras. Desenmascara y confronta a los escribas y maestros de la ley, y alaba la ofrenda de la viuda. Él observaba cuidadosamente para enseñar lo correcto, lo que lleva a vivir con dignidad. Había visto el sufrimiento de los pobres, de los enfermos, de los huérfanos y de las viudas. También, veía como los ricos se aprovechaban de los más pobres; no había ninguna consideración para ellos, les cobraban impuestos, les hacían cumplir leyes injustas que ni ellos mismos cumplían. Ahora, ¿cómo hacemos para compartir lo que tenemos? ¿Damos de lo que nos sobra, como los ricos de los tiempos de Jesús o somos como la viuda de Sarepta y la del Evangelio que generosamente dieron lo que tenían desde su pobreza? Actualmente, es digno de resaltar la grandeza de los pobres, de los inmigrantes que son ricos en bendiciones porque su confianza está puesta en Dios. Recordemos, siempre, que Dios ve los corazones y no las apariencias. Lo que da valor es el amor con que se hacen las cosas. "Yo les aseguro que esta viuda pobre ha dado más que todos los otros" (Marcos 12:43). En resumen, el mundo necesita generosidad y confianza al máximo. Oremos con el Salmo 145: "Da el Señor protección al forastero, y reanima al huérfano y a la viuda, mas desvía el camino de los malvados, El Señor reina para siempre, tu Dios, Sion, de generación en generación".

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It all really boils down to a matter of the heart, and actions do speak louder than words. We cannot hide from the truth. A problem with religion is that it is possible for someone to make everything appear to be right when actually it is not. We can say all of the right prayers, perform all of the proscribed rituals, claim that we adhere to orthodox doctrines and still lead a distorted, empty and sometimes pitiful life. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even the noblest looking actions can amount to nothing. It is no wonder, then, that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus. While it may not always appear to be the case, God has a special care and regard for those who depend upon him in times of trouble and want. Only the person who is truly poor is the only one who can see this. Because of a lack of trust, the one who has much is afraid to take a risk and sees only what they possess as their only security.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Realmente todo se reduce a una cuestión del corazón, y las acciones hablan más que las palabras. No podemos escondernos de la verdad. Un problema con la religión es que es posible que alguien haga que todo parezca correcto cuando en realidad no lo es. Podemos decir todas las oraciones correctas, realizar todos los rituales prescritos, afirmar que nos adherimos a las doctrinas ortodoxas y aún llevamos una vida distorsionada, vacía y, a veces, lamentable. Solo las acciones que surgen de un sacrificio verdadero y profundo demuestran verdadera integridad. Sin sacrificio, incluso las acciones de aspecto más noble pueden significar nada. No es de extrañar, entonces, que la viuda que contribuyó con su pobreza recibió gran admiración de Jesús. Aunque no siempre parezca ser el caso, Dios tiene especial cuidado y consideración por aquellos que dependen de él en tiempos de angustia y necesidad. Solo la persona que es verdaderamente pobre es la única que puede ver esto. Por falta de confianza, el que tiene mucho tiene miedo de arriesgarse y ve solo lo que posee como su única seguridad.
