“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” Take a moment to ponder these words from today’s Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It’s hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love. In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the “when” of death, the “what” of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord’s coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared. Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God’s eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear

ANNOUNCEMENTS

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Giving Until it Hurts

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ’s? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death? Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if “unblemished”) lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed. But another answer is this: Christ’s sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone. Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

The author of Hebrews continues to emphasize Jesus’ death as the definitive and final sacrificial offering for sins. Why do you think this is a central theme in the Letter to the Hebrews?

Gospel:

Jesus speaks of his Second Coming at the end of time and warns his disciples: “Be watchful! Be alert!” How are you preparing for judgment day?

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Dando hasta que duela

En la época de Cristo, el sacrificio no era nada nuevo para el pueblo judío. Los israelitas eran expertos en sacrificios. Entonces, después de siglos de todo tipo de ofrendas imaginables, ¿qué tenía de especial de Cristo? ¿Qué la hizo tan diferente de los sacrificios ofrecidos por los sacerdotes levitas durante siglos antes de su muerte? Bueno, responder adecuadamente a esa pregunta consumiría volúmenes enteros. Y, por supuesto, la primera y más importante razón es que Cristo era el hijo de Dios y el salvador del mundo, no una ofrenda de cordero al azar (aunque “sin mancha”). Solo por la sangre de Cristo podíamos ser redimidos. Pero otra respuesta es esta: el sacrificio de Cristo le costó. De hecho, le costó todo. Las ofrendas hechas por los israelitas a través de sus sacerdotes también les costaron, por supuesto. Dieron de sus rebaños, de las provisiones de su casa, de sus riquezas. Pero Cristo dio de manera diferente. Dio de sí mismo. Dio hasta que todo se acabó. Ésta es la forma más elevada de corresponsabilidad: el don de uno mismo hasta el punto de la incomodidad. Puede tomar una multitud de formas y no estoy diciendo que todos estemos llamados a ser clavados en la cruz. De hecho, para la mayoría de nosotros, nuestros dones no implicarán ningún malestar físico en absoluto. Pero ciertamente, la corresponsabilidad exige incomodidad. Exige que vayamos en contra de nuestra naturaleza humana de ponernos a nosotros mismos en primer lugar, de pensar principalmente en nuestras propias necesidades y deseos. Y, sobre todo, exige amor. Eso, sobre todo, distinguió el don que Cristo nos dio.

XXXIII Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario 14 de noviembre de 2021

“El cielo y la tierra pasarán, pero mis palabras no pasarán” (Marcos 13:31). ¿Cuándo será el fin de los tiempos? No lo sabemos. El mismo Jesús lo afirma con las siguientes palabras en el Evangelio: “Por lo que se refiere a ese Día y cuando vendrá, no lo sabe nadie, ni los ángeles en el Cielo, ni el Hijo, sino solamente el Padre” (Marcos 13:32). Por aquello del miedo que muchas personas tienen hacia el fin del mundo, hasta consultan brujos y adivinos para saberlo. El día de hoy, la Palabra de Dios nos da la respuesta a estos interrogantes. Que nadie los engañe, solo Dios lo sabe y a nadie se lo ha dicho o revelado. Por otro lado, estamos por concluir el Año Litúrgico y recorrimos el camino de Marcos en este ciclo B. El próximo domingo será el último y lo cerraremos con la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey. En quince días iniciaremos el Adviento con San Lucas en el ciclo C. Entonces, estemos listos, busquemos gente que nos guíe y no sigamos a cualquiera. La recomendación de Jesús, es siempre la misma: vigílense, estén atentos, oren y no se duerman, estén alertas como en el vigía en medio de la noche. Cada desastre en el mundo, como esta pandemia que ha dejado destrucción y muerte en muchas familias, nos pone en alerta en la vida y nos hace buscar al que es el Señor de la vida. El papa Francisco recomienda reflexionar en lo siguiente: “Será más que nunca el momento en el que nos abandonemos definitivamente al amor del Padre y nos confiemos a su misericordia (11-21-2018).

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Every human being asks and answers a very important existential question. What happens to us when we die? The answer we provide will determine how we chart the course of our existence. It will also determine whether the Second Coming of Christ will be of any concern to us. For many, life is simply a random occurrence with no significant intention or meaning about it. For these people, their eventual death, and the end of the earth as they know it, have little importance beyond their personal consequences. But, for people of faith our natural death and the Second Coming of Christ have huge implications. It is to these things that our faith speaks volumes and can bring a keen understanding and direction that the secular world simply cannot provide. This is where the call to vigilance and the primordial virtues of faith, hope, and love become useful and meaningful. We are works in progress who can either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful surprising creativity of his will.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Todo ser humano hace y responde una pregunta existencial muy importante. ¿Qué nos sucede cuando morimos? La respuesta que proporcionemos determinará cómo trazamos el curso de nuestra existencia. También determinará si la Segunda Venida de Cristo será de algún interés para nosotros. Para muchos, la vida es simplemente un suceso aleatorio sin una intención significativa o sentido al respecto. Para estas personas, su eventual muerte y el fin de la tierra tal como la conocen, tienen poca importancia más allá de sus consecuencias personales. Pero, para las personas de fe, nuestra muerte natural y la Segunda Venida de Cristo tienen enormes implicaciones. Es de estas cosas que nuestra fe dice mucho y puede traer una comprensión y una dirección agudas que el mundo secular simplemente no puede proporcionar. Aquí es donde la llamada a la vigilancia y las virtudes primordiales de la fe, la esperanza y el amor se vuelven útiles y significativas. Somos trabajos en progreso que pueden resistir las inspiraciones del Artista Divino o ceder a la maravillosa y sorprendente creatividad de su voluntad.
